ORDER

On de novo review, the Court adopts Magistrate Judge Deere's partial recommendation, Doc. 8, and overrules Dillard's objections, Doc. 9. FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b)(3). If Dillard wants to plead more facts to try to show that all his claims are related, then he must get permission to amend his complaint. But he can't amend his complaint by way of his objections or by just filing an amended complaint. His claims about retaliation, denial of access to a notary, interference with access to the grievance procedure, and due process are therefore dismissed without prejudice to Magistrate Judge Deere's reconsideration on a motion in due course.

So Ordered.
